

Using e-Ballots on SpeechWire

Step 1 – Go to www.speechwire.com and click on the “online tournament access”

www.speechwire.com

The screenshot shows the SpeechWire website homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, LIVE!, Features, Order, Calendar, Results, Your account, and Manager login. The main content area features a prominent blue box with the text: "Online tournament access" and "Are you judging or competing in an online tournament on SpeechWire? Click here to go to live.speechwire.com and access your event". A yellow arrow points to this link. Below this, there is a section titled "Yes, you can use SpeechWire to administer your virtual tournament!" followed by "NEW! View video resources on SpeechWire virtual tournaments for managers, judges, coaches and students" and "Place your order now". A "Registering for a tournament?" section includes links to log into a team account or create a free account, and to browse the calendar. A row of eight icons with labels provides quick access to various features: Live coverage, Features, Why SpeechWire?, Order SpeechWire, Calendar and registration, Tournament results, Your account, and Tournament manager. The "THIS WEEK ON SPEECHWIRE" section lists events for ALASKA (ALASKA STATE CHAMPIONSHIP in Anchorage) and CALIFORNIA (STRAIGHT TO DVD (SYNCHRONOUS) in Los Angeles), each with links for Schematics and Information, and a "No final results" status.

Do you need to create a SpeechWire account to judge with?

In order to judge on SpeechWire, you need a free SpeechWire account. If you already have an account, please log in above. If you don't have one yet, but you know you are judging soon, you should be sent account information when the manager links your email into the system. In the unlikely situation that you need to create one yourself, click 'Create account' below. You should not have to create your own account, though.

Please carefully review the following statement on implicit bias from the National Speech and Debate Association.

"We are all influenced by implicit bias, or the stereotypes that unconsciously affect our decisions. When judging, our implicit biases negatively impact traditionally marginalized and disenfranchised students. Before writing comments or making a decision, please take a moment to reflect on any biases that may impact your decision making.

Please remember that the video quality of a student's performance or speech may be impacted by lighting, internet, access to equipment, and other family members' presence in the home. To ensure a more equitable experience for our participants, please be sure your decision-making process and comments are related only to the content and quality of the presentation or speech itself."
